Statement from U.S. Rep. Richard Hanna on the Observance of Memorial Day

UTICA, N.Y. – Statement from U.S. Rep. Richard Hanna on the observance of Memorial Day:

“Today we honor the fallen. Memorial Day is a time to recognize those who’ve served and protected our nation and our freedom but never returned home. To serve one’s country is among the most noble and selfless acts available to man, particularly during times of war.

“I commend all those who gave themselves to this nation in combat and we remember those who are no longer with us. You do your family, your friends and this nation great honor with your service. We will never forget.”
