

Congressman Hanna: ‘We Work for You’

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Constituents who write and e-mail U.S. Representative Richard Hanna’s office on average receive a response in a week or less, the congressman announced today.

To date, Hanna’s office has answered 22,028 letters and e-mails and the average turnaround time is seven days, he said. The top issues residents contact Hanna about are: the federal budget and spending, energy and health care.

“We work for you,” Hanna told the residents of the 24th Congressional District. “Write, call, e-mail, and visit. This is your office and we’re working very diligently on your behalf.”

In the six-month progress report, Hanna also cited that the office has assisted nearly 600 constituents with issues ranging from Veterans Affairs to Social Security and Medicare to immigration issues.

Hanna announced that his Washington, D.C. staff will host office hours from 8 to 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, June 28 in the Utica District Office for constituents who have concerns regarding legislation or policy. No appointments are necessary.

District-based staff continues to host mobile office hours in Chenango, Herkimer, Otsego, Seneca and Tioga counties, he said.

Hanna will host “Open Door” meetings throughout the 24th District. Open Door meetings are an initiative Hanna started to connect with constituents through personal meetings. No appointments are necessary and meetings are taken on a first-come, first-serve basis.
