

GOP Members of Congress Tell AGC Leaders Country Needs Long-Term Infrastructure Investments

New York Congressman Richard Hanna (R) – a former contractor – talked about the need for long-term infrastructure investments, fewer regulations, during the Associated General Contractors of America's National Chapter Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C.

To read the story click here .