

I voted Yes on H.R. 320, the Distinguished Flying Cross National Memorial Act.

The bill designates the Distinguished Flying Cross National Memorial that is under construction in California for members of our Armed Forces who have excelled in flight. The bill would have no effect on spending, so I supported this honor for those servicemen and women who have demonstrated extraordinary achievement as pilots.