

I voted Yes on H.R. 3672, the Disaster Relief Appropriations Act, 2012.

The bill includes $6.4 billion for the FEMA Disaster Relief Fund. This funding goes towards includes funding for fire assistance, emergency declarations, major disasters, surge operations, and disaster readiness support. These funds will help cover costs in Upstate New York from recent natural disasters such as Hurricane Irene and Tropical Storm Lee.

The funds spent in this bill were offset in by spending cuts in H.Con.Res. 94.

The bill was approved by a vote of 351 – 67.
